Indians, clad in their picturesque native garb, took them in canoes, decorated with flowers, on a trip through the lake. After this there was a banquet ashore, a feature of which was dancing by Indian women in the national dress Secretary Root's party included the Diplomatic Corps and high officials of the Government. This evening the whole party will be entertained by the American Ambassador. Mr. Thompson, who will give a banquet at the Chapultepec Hotel in honor of Secretary Root and
